- 5.-Exhibitors and competitors are required to give notice, in writing, to the Secretary, on the Society's forms, on or before 9th August, describing the animals they intend to exhibit for different Classes, and stating their exact age. In all instances when this regulation is not strictly complied with, such animals will not be allowed to compete.
- 6.-That every animal obtaining a prize shall have been bonafide the property of the exhibitor for three months prior to the Show.
- 7.-That all animals shown as yearlings shall be allowed as such if under two years of age on Show day. The same shall apply to all two year and three year old animals.
- 8.-No exhibitor or competitor shall enter any animal unless it comes strictly under the Rules of the Society; and in the event of any dispute the burden of proof will lie with the person concerned and until such proof is furnished, the Committee will not pay the prize.
- 9.-That any exhibitor or competitor detected in an attempt to impose on the Society shall forfeit the class and shall not be allowed to compete for any Class in the following year. No excuse will be entertained.
- 10.-That the Committee shall appoint one or more competent and dis-interested persons to determine upon the merits of different exhibits brought into competition, who are to decide according to the best of their judgement. That all disputes which may arise shall be settled by the Committee.
- 11.-That the Judges shall have power of withholding prizes in every case where there shall not appear sufficient merit, and of giving a prize in any case where there appears to be a great merit, although there be only one candidate.
- 12.-Judges in Pure Breed Cattle Classes, shall be instructed that where, in their opinion, exhibits show signs of cross breeding, such signs will be regarded as faults. Judges decision will be final.
- 13.-All Cattle must be Attested.
- 14.-All animals for exhibition must be on the ground before 9.00 a.m. Jumping and Driving Horses must be on the ground not later than 9.15 a.m. At 2.30 p .m. there will be a Grand parade, in which all prize winners must join. A space of ground will be set apart for the purpose of exercising horses.
